SENIOR CLASS POEM

We, the class of fifty-one,
Will now be on our way.
Will now go forth into the world
On this happy graduation day.

Memories will be left behind
Of school-mates dear and true
Of teachers who improved our minds
And taught us what they knew.

We leave our childish, naughty pranks
To the class of fifty-two.
We leave the tricks we know so will
And our gum chewing, too.

And to the junior boys we say
Thanks for the seats we shared,
Don't get new girls this year, kids
And show us you really cared.

To Mr. Clay we say farewell,
And thank you for everything.
You're the best advisor a class ever had.
We grew 'neath your sheltering wing.

And so go we forth into all the world,
Our aims and banner high.
"Rowing, not drifting" our motto shall be
'Til unto our goal we draw nigh.

And then we'll think back on the good old days,
The days of the books and the rule,
And dearer than ever our memory shall be
Of those days here in our great high school.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Seniors of 1951, being of strong backs and weak minds, do hereby submit this, our last will and testament.

I, Povl Boesen, will my suave personality to Francis Overend and my '39 Ford to anyone who'll trade it for a '51 Cadillac.

I, Virginia Brennan, will by membership in the O.M.S. (Old Maid's Society) to Jackie Hein and my soft voice to Jane Hanenberger.

I, Tom Gaskin, will my fun-filled nights to anyone who doesn't need over a half-hour's sleep per week and my lack of words to Pat Pierce.

I, Margaret Hoch, will my nick-name, "Mugs", to a prizefighter and my drawing ability to Jim Johnson.

I, Ray Lindemer, will my '31 Ford to Nate Bemel and my story-telling abilities to Elaine Reinecke.

I, Mary Lovejoy, will my fast walk to Jim Peck and my valve trombone to anyone else with a lot of wind.

I, Clarence Nickelsen, will my short stature to Ray Bush and my ability to match coins to Walt Raddatz.

I, Joan Riley, will my fourth hour study period to someone who doesn't need to study and will keep my interest in the class of '52.

I, Woodrow Shoden, will my musical voice to Bob Brobst and my mustache to anyone who doesn't like to shave.

I, LaVaine Uthke, will my dislike for social science class to Nancy Smith and my blonde hair to Louise Escalante.

I, Faye Von Wald, will my place as editor of the Ee-Oh-Ta-Hi to someone who wants a lot of work and my noon-hour seat to no one!

We, the Seniors of 1951, will what ever intelligence we ever did have and our fun-filled hours to the underclassmen of Eyota High School.
